- m. The Administrator may terminate the Newsletter Service agreement at any time in the event of a breach of the Terms of Service or applicable laws by the User.

7. Prohibited Activities and Content

- 7.1. Users are required to use the Service in accordance with its intended purpose, the Terms of Service, the Store Terms and Conditions, the Privacy Policy, and all applicable laws.
- 7.2. In particular, Users must not engage in activities that could interfere with or disrupt the proper functioning of the Service, including but not limited to:
 - a. Gaining unauthorised access to content or information not intended for the User;

- b. Sending spam or other unsolicited commercial communications via the Service;
- c. Providing unlawful content through the Service;
- d. Submitting false or third-party personal data;
- e. Engaging in actions that may interfere with or disrupt the Service, such as disrupting other Users' access, introducing harmful software, unauthorised scanning of networks or devices, monitoring network traffic without authorisation, intercepting communications, or attempting to breach the security of the Service or User Accounts;
- f. Conducting activities that violate the Terms of Service, good morals, public order, or infringe upon the rights and interests of the Administrator, other Users, or third parties.

7.3. Content considered prohibited includes, but is not limited to:

- a. Content that violates the Terms of Service or is unlawful under applicable laws, including the Digital Services Act;
- b. Spam, advertisements, or promotions of products/services unrelated to the Administrator;
- c. Content unrelated to the Service or Shop;
- d. Content that promotes violence, aggression, insults, defamation, discrimination, or is otherwise unethical or harmful;
- e. Offensive, vulgar content, or content that violates public order or accepted standards of behaviour;
- f. Content that infringes intellectual property rights or personal rights.

7.4. The Administrator reserves the right to monitor and review User-submitted content, including comments and product reviews, and to take appropriate action if prohibited or unlawful content is identified. Moderation will be conducted manually, in an impartial, objective, and proportionate manner, with due diligence, and aims specifically to detect, identify, and address prohibited or unlawful content provided by Users.

7.5. If the Administrator becomes aware that a User has posted prohibited or unlawful content, appropriate action will be taken in accordance with the Terms or applicable law

7.6. In the case of posting prohibited or unlawful content or engaging in any conduct in violation of the Terms or Store Terms and Conditions, the Administrator may:

- a. Remove or restrict access to the prohibited or unlawful content;
- b. Temporarily suspend or terminate the provision of services to the User;
- c. Suspend or close the User's Account.

7.7. If a User identifies content on the Service that they believe may be prohibited or unlawful, they should notify the Administrator by sending an email to: b2b@ffrree.com The notification should include:

- a. An explanation of why the content is considered prohibited or unlawful;
- b. Identification of the location of the content (e.g., providing a URL or additional information to help identify its location);
- c. The name and email address of the notifier, except in cases where the notification concerns information related to one of the offences mentioned in Articles 3-7 of Directive 2011/93/EU;

- d. A statement confirming that, to the best of the notifier's knowledge and belief, the information provided in the notification is accurate and complete.
- 7.8. The notification serves as a basis for the Administrator to take appropriate actions and apply sanctions, provided it contains all necessary information and allows the Administrator to determine—without detailed analysis—that the reported content is prohibited or unlawful. If the notification is valid and includes the notifier's email address, the Administrator will acknowledge receipt of the notification promptly, but no later than 14 days after receiving it. If the notification is incomplete, incorrect, or otherwise unverifiable, the Administrator may request the notifier to supplement or correct it.
- 7.9. The Administrator will issue a decision regarding the notification promptly, but no later than 14 days after receiving a valid notification, and will inform the notifier and other relevant parties if the notification includes sufficient contact details. The Administrator will also inform them of their right to appeal the decision.
- 7.10. The User who provided the prohibited or unlawful content, as well as the notifier, may submit an appeal within 14 days of receiving the decision by sending an email to: b2b@fffree.com The appeal should include:
- a. The name or entity of the appellant and their email address or other contact details;
 - b. description of the inaccuracies in the decision;
 - c. A justification for the appeal.
- 7.11. If the appeal is valid and includes the appellant's email address, the Administrator will acknowledge receipt promptly, but no later than 14 days after receiving the appeal. If the appeal is incomplete, incorrect, or otherwise unverifiable, the Administrator may request the appellant to supplement or correct it.
- 7.12. The Administrator will review appeals regarding prohibited or unlawful content within 14 days of receiving a properly submitted appeal, in an impartial, objective, and diligent manner. The review will be conducted manually by the Administrator or individuals acting on behalf of the Administrator. No further appeals are permitted following the decision issued in response to the appeal
- 7.13. In the case of a reasonable suspicion that a crime threatening the life or safety of a person or persons has been or may be committed, the Administrator will inform the relevant authorities.

8. Complaint Procedure

- 8.1. Any complaints related to the operation of the Service should be submitted to the following email address: b2b@fffree.com. The complaint should include information that allows for the identification of the User (such as first name, last name, company name, and email address) as well as a description of the complaint.
- 8.2. Upon receiving a complaint, the Administrator is obligated to review the User's complaint regarding the operation of the Service within 30 days and inform the User, via email, of the resolution. This includes notifying the User of whether the reported issue has been resolved or the reasons for declining to resolve the issue
- 8.3. The User acknowledges that resolving reported issues may temporarily disrupt the operation of the Service.
- 8.4. The Administrator is not obligated to address minor issues that do not affect the User's ability to use the Service.

9. Liability

- 9.1. The User uses the Service at their own risk, and the Administrator's liability for any damages related to the use of the Service is excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law.
- 9.2. In particular, the Administrator is not liable for damages caused by:
 - a. Interruptions in access to the Service;
 - b. Interruptions in access to the Internet;
 - c. The User's failure to meet the technical requirements for using the Service;
 - d. The submission of unlawful or prohibited content by Users;
 - e. User-submitted reviews or comments;
 - f. Malfunctions of the User's technical infrastructure or software.
- 9.3. The Administrator is not liable for any lost profits.
- 9.4. The User agrees to indemnify the Administrator against any third-party claims arising from the User's breach of the Terms of Service or Store Terms and Conditions, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

10. Reviews

- 10.1. "Reviews" refers to any subjective statements or portions thereof published by the Administrator or the User (Buyer) through the dedicated functionalities of the Service, either on the Service or on the Administrator's social media platforms (Review).
- 10.2. The Administrator provides access to published Reviews of Products.
- 10.3. Reviews are primarily submitted by Buyers who have purchased a Product.
- 10.4. The Administrator ensures that the Reviews published on the Service or social media platforms are submitted by Buyers who have actually purchased the Product in question.
- 10.5. The Administrator verifies the Reviews published on the Service or social media platforms, particularly by cross-referencing the Reviewer's information with that of the Buyers. If the Administrator has doubts based on this verification, they may request the Reviewer to provide information confirming that they are a Buyer
- 10.6. If the Review does not come from a Buyer, the Administrator: (a) if the Review was published on the Service - may remove the Review; (b) if the Review was published on the Administrator's social media platforms - will take all reasonable actions to remove the Review, including contacting the administrator of the relevant social media platform with a request to remove the Review. In such cases, the Administrator may also add a comment under the published Review indicating that it was not submitted by a Buyer.
- 10.7. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Administrator reserves the right to modify or remove Reviews, either in whole or in part, even after they have been published, especially in cases where the Review: (a) violates the law or good morals, particularly if it is offensive, threatening, defamatory, obscene, pornographic, or includes or promotes hate speech, racism, discrimination, libel, or violence; (b) infringes or restricts the rights of third parties, especially by violating copyrights, trademarks, other intellectual property rights, or image rights; (c) is false or misleading, or contains untrue statements of fact; (d) contains confidential information or personal data; (e) includes harmful technical elements such as viruses, worms, or other potentially harmful software or files; (f) contains embedded links to external websites; (g) must be removed due to a court order or decision by a relevant authority; (h) concerns a withdrawn Product; (g) constitutes prohibited or unlawful content as defined in the Terms of Service.

11. Dispute resolution

11.1. Disputes between the User and the Administrator will be resolved by the court with jurisdiction over the Administrator's registered office.

12. Privacy policy

12.1. The Administrator is committed to protecting the privacy of Users. Detailed information on the collection and processing of Users' personal data, as well as the collection and use of cookies, is set forth in the Privacy Policy: <https://fffree.com/privacy-policy.pdf>.

13. Changes to the Terms of Service

13.1. The User may access the Terms of Service at any time through the Service and may download or print a copy.

13.2. The Administrator reserves the right to amend the Terms of Service at any time, for any reason, including in particular, changes in the law that affect the content of the Terms of Service or the Administrator's operations.

13.3. Users with active Accounts on the Service will be informed of any changes to the Terms of Service at least 7 days before the new version comes into effect.

13.4. The Store Terms and Conditions and the Privacy Policy may be amended according to the terms set out therein.

14. Final provisions

14.1. The Administrator may carry out technical and IT work on the Service for the purposes of updating or developing the Service, including adding new functionalities, modifying, or removing existing features.

14.2. The Terms of Service are governed by Polish law, in particular the provisions of the Act on the Provision of Electronic Services.

14.3. The Terms of Service have been prepared in both Polish and English. In case of any discrepancies between the two language versions, the Polish version shall prevail, unless applicable consumer regulations indicate otherwise.
